ON SIGHT OF PADDY FIELDS

Far away from the concrete city,
Passing through the paddy fields, meadows and greeneries!
Touched by the gentle lovely cool breezes,
Watching the birds who have come for their morning meeting,
And from whom the pupils have to learn discipline,
Enjoying the view of every leave, every blade of grass and flower!
As the aftermath of rain is making them shine in the beam of the Sun,
Listening to the chirping of birds,
The cozy warmth of Nature is churning the moods,
What an awesome feeling!
Finally it's getting ready to serve the purpose,
The hunger of the man!
The farmer is pride in being the reason,
Like a father feels pride of giving his daughter's hand,
To the bridegroom during the wedding,
The people should congratulate the farmer for the fruitful production
As a woman may be the most beautiful or intellectual,
Or can be the best individual who can do anything,
She bows her head to fulfil the purpose of the universe,
Just like the fruitful production of the farmer!
To consecrate it for mankind!

THE DAWN AND AUSK

Not only every blade of the grass and leave in nature
But the cosmos is delighted to own it!
Earth is its kingdom,
The sky has become it's home!
It journeys from heaven to earth to accomplish its goal,
Heavenly water craves to satisfy its thirstiness by casting of clouds,
For it's serene and down to earth appearance,

Earth springs it's heart to place it,
Such an astounding reflection of nature we have!
Dawn and Dusk, though a repetition,
We can explore nothing but it's beauty!
As Beautiful season has started more beautifully,
Making the blooming flowers spread their fragrances,
Across the ways to grab the attention of butterflies,
The cool breezes making heavy rice weevils ruffle slowly,
Like a young lady who is blossomed forth,
Awakening the aesthetic pleasure!!
Recharging the confidence levels!!

TRIBUTE TO MOM

Mother is the only person who can sacrifice anything for her children!
If there is anything that we say the word "LOSS"
It's surely the absence of our loving parents on this 'EARTH'.
The first person who wish me Happy New Year EVERY YEAR is no more!
But still, it's incredible to believe in the fact!
This is my sincere deference to MOM!
Your absence may separate us physically,
But not your love, blessings and motherly protection!
As your care and blessings are metaphysical!!
The way You made us grow up is inspirational!
The food you made for us will be relished forever!
The sacrifices you have made for us are treasured!
As they can't be elapsed easily with the passage of time!
I may not be perfect in sharing all my feelings,
Due to the tears and pain, i have for you,
But I always cherish your memories!!!
